Navaratri festival of Hinduism.

These displays are typically thematic, narrating a legend from a Hindu text to court life, weddings, everyday scenes, and miniature kitchen utensils. They are also known as Kolu, Gombe Habba, Bommai Golu or Bommala Kolu. During the nine-

School of Arts and Science in association with Fine Arts club organized Navrathri Golu Celebrations in the college premises during 26.10.2022 to 04.10.2022 at Bharathiyar Block.

Golu is the festive display of dolls and figurines in South India during the autumn festive season, particularly around the multi day day celebrations, a special Golu Alangaram was on the display for the members of faculty, staff and students. Around hundreds of dolls, made of clay were arranged beautifully in nine tiers with Navrathri Idols ranging from Nava Shakthi, Ashta Lakshmi, Dasavatharam, Aaru Padai Veedu, Lord Vishnu, Lord Brahma, and Lord Natraj etc. In addition, a Varalakshmi Idol was set-up using a pot, and, it was decorated with eye-catchy jewels as an embodiment of health, wealth and prosperity.

Each department celebrated with various devotional activities like singing, recited devotional songs to invoke the Lord Almighty and made the event a remarkable one, through their lively and soulful renderings.

To mark the Navaratri Celebrations, a Special Pooja was performed on the final day of the nine-day event. Dr Nazeema T H, Sirector, SAS narrated the importance of various celebrations at the college premises.

Along with many competitions were conducted for the students on the occasion of golu festival. Students from many departments eagerly participated and got medals for outstanding performances and finally Golu celebration traditional sacred food was distributed to the faculty members and students.
