Department of English, School of Arts and Science, AV Campus, VMRF (DU) organized Spelling Bee Competition to enhance the student's knowledge. The competition was conducted on the 27th of March 2023 afternoon as a part of Literary Week.

The ultimate objectives of this competition are,

- Promoting educational excellence and adding value to intellectualism through a contest; competition and reward for excellence.
- To cultivate a reading culture in young minds, creating a platform that would make education attractive and a worthy adventure to embark on.

The spelling bee started at about 12.15 pm with the registration of students from different departments and the vision of this competition was delivered by the Head of the Department Dr. S.S. Saranya. There were (36) contestants from (7) departments.

The competition started at about 12.30 pm and the first and second rounds of the competition began. After two rounds, 15 students moved on to the next round. After the third round, scores were aggregated and contestants with low points were disqualified.

At the end of the third round, six (6) contestants advanced to the next (fourth) round. The fourth round was treated independently of former scores aggregated for each contestant. After this round, Ms. Keerthana from I BSc Computer Science bagged the first position in the competition, Ms. Rizwana from II B.Com General came second and Ms. Abitha from II BA English got third. The event came to a close at 2.00 pm and Dr. S. S Saranya, Head of the Department ended with a vote of thanks and announcements about upcoming programs of the academy.
