

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCE

AV Campus, Paiyanoor - 603 104

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Title of the Event : Oratorical Competition
Date : 20.03.2023
Venue : Bharathiyar Block, BBT 101
No. of Participants : 15

Department of English, School of Arts and Science, AV Campus, VMRF (DU) organized Oratorical Competition to enhance the student's public speaking skills. The competition was conducted on the 20th March 2023 afternoon as a part of Literary Week.

The Ultimate Objectives of the competition are

- To introduce participants to suggested speech formats that equip them to present subject matter to powerfully impact the emotions of hearers.
- To develop language awareness skills focusing on diction, grammar and articulation, as well as skill in delivery and stage presence.
- The ability to think and speak clearly and intelligently focus on the specific subject matter.
- Provides young people with an opportunity to develop and receive recognition for their public speaking skills.

The Oratorical Competition started at about 12.15 pm with the registration of students from different departments. There were 10 contestants from 5 departments. Students were given three topics:

1. One Earth – One Family – One Future
2. Lifestyle for the environment

3. National Education Policy – Boon or Bane

The competition started at about 12.30 pm and the students participated enthusiastically. The competition was judged by Dr. S. S. Saranya, HOD & Associate Professor of English and Mrs. Padmaragam, Assistant Professor of English.

Following is the list of Winners

S. No.	Name of the student	Year	Department	Place
01	Preethi Jasmine	I	B. Com (G)	First
02	Benisha Mercy	II	BA English	Second
03	Swathi Priya	II	B. Com (G)	Second

Glimpses of the Competition

