Overview:

On record, the One day Webinar on the topic “DYNAMICS OF COMMUNICATION SKILLS” organized by the Department of English SAS, AV, Campus from 24th -30th of June 2021 took reverence and joy in addressing the key note speakers of the day Dr. Alamelu, Dr. Vithya Prabha, Dr. Harshini, Dr. Hema Malini, Dr. Merlin Detsy and Dr. A. Catherine Anna Pushpam. The FDP began top notch at 10am that included a welcome felicitation by the Department Head, Mrs. S. Padma Ragam of SAS. Followed by the session was taken over in time by the speaker explaining the Artefacts of Communication and its daily usage in practical life. The entire six day session was captured with multiple perspectives displayed with creative PowerPoint slides simple and succinct. All the six days had different topics that elaborated the nuances of English Communication to its utmost boundaries and narrative techniques. Aspects of English usage were re-defined and explicated with vivid examples live. The session exposed the loop holes of how communication can be effective through easy tools of strategies applications and methods practiced in the long run. Focus was given on ESL learners to identify their weakness and develop their strengths. To conclude the whole two hours of Webinar developed a platform of motivation to second language learner’s awareness that adapting a different language is a change that changes a life and its dimensions of living in tranquillity.
